

Ian Freeman

Eugene, OR

ianfreeperson@gmail.com

QUALIFICATIONS

- Proficient analyzing spatial data in ArcGIS Pro and ArcMap.
- Proficient with design processes in Adobe products, such as Illustrator, Photoshop, and InDesign.
- Experienced in use of Python, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
- Competent with spoken and written Spanish.

EDUCATION

University of Oregon — Graduated December 2021

B.A. of Geography and Spatial Data Science & Technology

Minor in Spanish

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Cartographer, January 2022–Present

Wyoming Migration Initiative — Laramie, WY

- Visualized and mapped data provided by researchers.
- Edited graphics and figures in preparation for publication.

Student Cartographer, October 2020–March 2022

InfoGraphics Lab — Eugene, OR

- Worked individually and in team settings to design maps and graphics using ESRI and Adobe products.
- Worked closely and routinely with clients in order to efficiently produce cartographic products.
- Organized and processed data using Microsoft Excel.
- Trained and provided support to new students in the lab.

Photojournalist, September 2021–December 2021

Ethos Magazine — Eugene, OR

- Gained experience in visual storytelling through photography.
- Learned and practiced ethical journalism methods.

Meat Department Clerk, June 2019–April 2020

Market of Choice — Eugene, OR

- Developed customer service skills and worked with a team to complete food prep and cleaning tasks.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- International Baccalaureate Diploma — 2018
- Oregon Seal of Biliteracy (Spanish) — 2018
- Bill Loy Award for Excellence in Cartography — 2021